+Agenda 3/30/20 Meeting with Supervisor Gibson, CCSD Director R&I Chairperson Dave Pierson, Cambria Resources and Infrastructure Ad Hoc committee members

Paul Nugent and Jim Webb.

Offsite Water Storage - The Cambria Community Services District has formed an ad hoc sub-committee, as part of the Resources and Infrastructure standing committee to investigate off site water storage concepts for Cambria, CA.

- 1. Review regional projects: water and wastewater
  - a. San Simeon joint meeting take away
    - 1. status of Cambria WWTP, Emergency Water Project
    - 2. San Simeon WWTP, CCC mandate
    - 3. Regional WWTP proposal
- 2. Off site storage concepts
  - a. Warren reservoir
  - b. Whale Rock/ Nacimiento exchange
    - 1. Is there a Cambria allocation from Nacimiento?
    - 2. Diablo Canyon deSal potential
  - c. Roughing up the watershed
    - 1. Santa Rosa creek project status
  - d. Tanks
  - e. Laguna Estrada
  - f. Forest Management

Dear Tom,

The Resources and Infrastructure ad hoc sub-committee recently met with SLO county supervisor Bruce Gibson to discuss "off site water storage" concepts for Cambria I will attempt to summarize some of those discussions to follow.

Mr. Gibson noted that ranking water storage concepts must be predicated upon the answer to the question of how much water is to be stored. His impression was that the need in Cambria, post Emergency Water Supply efforts, is small; concepts that involved lengthy piping runs were prohibitively expensive for the quantities of water being considered. This characterized the Lake Nacimiento 'allocation', Whale Rock reservoir and Diablo Canyon desal operation as applied to Cambria.

Mr. Gibson also noted that the current number of acre feet Cambria is allowed to pump from both Santa Rosa and San Simeon Creeks is more than its typical annual use. If the "wait list" of people wanting to build in Cambria was built out, at current water use levels, the total use would still be within the creek allowances. How ever, future needs may vary, due to climate change or varying use patterns, and systemic "resilience" in light of these fluctuations is sought. Projects that might further this goal were discussed briefly.

The Warren reservoir site was discussed as was the possibility of adding some tanks to the CCSD's San Simeon operations. Sizing considerations were vague due to many unknown factors, not the least of which was the expected yield of water from Cambria's Emergency Water systems operation. The travel time requirement for treated wastewater introduces a yield uncertainty as the final product water is injected into the San Simeon aquifer where some of it should migrate towards municipal well fields. The original specifications for yield supposed that a unit capable of pumping 250 af/yr would be sufficient to meet anticipated needs when added to current water allocations. This assumed that 60% of the injected water would be accessible to municipal wells.

The Emergency Water system has only publicly been run to verify tracer travel times and only during traditionally higher well levels. It would take accurate water production yield information to begin planning for storage needs and capabilities.

Mr. Gibson commented on the regional possibility of combining San Simeon and Cambria's Waste Water Treatment plants noting recent CCC rulings, lack of siting availability in San Simeon, sea level rise and benefits of a 'water recycling plant' for treated wastewater adding system resiliency. Timing was not imminent. Mr. Gibson also noted that he saw few if any alternatives to a BRP (Build Out Reduction Plan) when Cambria begins to grow. He offered his continued help in analyzing local issues and offered to meet again.

It would seem that running the EWF during what are typical seasonal dry months would allow assessment of both yield and impacts on the San Simeon creek lagoon under typical running operations. The data generated could inform seasonal storage needs which this sub-committee continues to investigate.

Your thoughts and guidance are appreciated. Best regards,

JIM WEBB

Jim Webb
